13. DISPUTES

The UC – functioning in an exchange capacity and, as a third-party record keeper – is to be held harmless with regard to any liability or dispute arising between members. If the seller is unable to prove delivery of the goods or service, the funds will automatically be returned to the buyer. If the seller provides proof of delivery, the funds will be posted to the seller's account. Final resolution of disputes is the responsibility of the parties to the transaction. The UC Administrator may, upon approval of the UC Committee, freeze funds involved in a disputed transaction and place such frozen trade dollars into an escrow account to be held until their release is authorized by the mutual consent of the parties to the disputed transaction, or by an arbitration authority of competent jurisdiction.

14. ASSIGNMENT

The UC may assign its rights and obligations under these Rules or any portion thereof.

15. CLAIMER OF LIABILITY

By signing this agreement and agreeing to participate in the UC, Member agrees to indemnify, hold harmless, and defend the UC and its management or owners with respect to any claim, debt or liability whatsoever arising out of any transaction wherein Member is a buyer or seller. Member acknowledges that any barter transaction in which Member participates shall be on a voluntary basis. In no event shall the UC or IRTA be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, or consequential damages arising from or in connection with the operation of the network including but not limited to loss of data, loss of projected revenues, or the costs of obtaining substitute goods or services, arising under any theory of liability, even if the UC was advised of, knew of, or should have known of, the possibility of such damages.

16. AMENDMENT OF UC RULES

The UC Rules and fee schedule may be amended by 2/3 vote of the UC Committee and with thirty – (30) days written notice to members. Any transaction that takes place in the month following the month notice is given to Member constitutes acceptance of the amended rules.

17. CANCELLATION AND TERMINATION

Member's breach of this agreement and/or UC Rules may cause Member's account to be cancelled by the UC. Member's account may also be cancelled if, in the sole discretion of the UC Committee, Member has acted in a manner that is detrimental to the UC or its members. In the event of cancellation of Member's account, Member and/or guarantor hereby agree to pay any negative trade account balance either in products acceptable to the UC or in cash or currency upon Member's receipt of email notice of cancellation from UC. If the balance in Member's account is positive upon Notice of Cancellation, UC may, at its sole discretion, permit Member to continue trading for ninety (90) days thereafter under such restrictions as UC may impose to ensure that trading on the account is directed only toward clearing the positive balance to zero. Member agrees to prepay any fees owed on future trading and monthly fees in order to utilize balance of trade dollars. Any positive balance remaining in Member's account ninety (90) days or more following delivery of a Notice of Cancellation shall thereafter be subject to the UC Credit and Delinquent Account Parameters.

In the event Member's account is inactive (no sales or purchases) for a period in excess of 120 days, the UC Committee may, in its discretion, close the account. However, prior to closing the account, a 30-day notice will be sent via email giving Member an opportunity to petition the UC Committee to reactivate the account. Such reactivation shall be in the sole discretion of the UC Committee.

18. CONTINGENCIES AND DISOLUTION

The UC Committee has the right to change, suspend or discontinue any aspect of its services, and IRTA has the right to suspend or discontinue the operation of UC, at any time at IRTA's sole discretion, without liability.

In the event the UC ceases operating as a facilitator of barter transactions between its Members, UC will attempt to collect as many outstanding debit balances as practical from Members. When, in the sole discretion of the UC, a reasonable share of outstanding debit balances have been collected from Members, these collected funds, in conjunction with funds in the UC Debt Reserve Account will be used to constitute a fund from which then outstanding credit balances will be paid on a pro rata basis to Members holding credit balances. UC or IRTA shall have no liability to compensate Members in any way for their credit balances in the event of any dissolution or winding up of the UC.

19. INDEPENDENT BUSINESS ENTITY

In performing any transactions through the UC, Member is independent of UC and IRTA and the personnel and other representatives of Member do not act as agents or employees of either the UC or IRTA.

In performing any transactions through the UC, Members trading within the UC are independent of the UC and are solely responsible for negotiating the terms and conditions of particular transactions with other Members subject to these Rules. Member shall have complete charge and responsibility for personnel employed by Member.

20. ENFORCEMENT

Member agrees that each and every term and provision contained in this agreement is joint and several with regard to every other term or provision therein. If any such provision or term shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall not affect the validity, legality or enforceability of the remainder of the terms and/or provision of the agreement.

21. NOTICES

Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties or as required herein, all notices to the UC regarding these Rules shall be sent by recognized courier or delivery service to UC at the IRTA World Headquarters Office at 524 Middle Street, Portsmouth, VA 23704 or to such successor main office address as the UC may announce to Members.

All notices to Members may be sent by any means reasonably calculated to provide adequate notice, including by email, unless otherwise provided herein.

22. ARBITRATION

All UC members agree to settlement of any claims or disputes with the UC by binding arbitration to be held in Norfolk, VA, in accordance with the rules then in effect of the American Arbitration Association. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding on the parties to the arbitration. Judgment may be entered on the arbitrator's decision in any court having jurisdiction. The parties to the arbitration shall each pay such costs and expenses directly related to the arbitration as are determined by the arbitrator.

At the time of application all members shall sign an Arbitration and Waiver of Jury Trial Agreement.

2021 UC AGREEMENT CONTRACT

524 Middle Street Portsmouth, VA 23704 | Phone: 757-393-2292 | www.ucci.trade

ARBITRATION AND WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL

By opening or maintaining the Account, you and we agree that any controversy, dispute, or claim ("Claim") by either you or us against the other, or against the employees, agents, or assigns of the other, whether based on contract, tort, or any other legal basis or theory, and whether pre-existing, present, or future, that arises from or relates to (a) this Agreement, (b) services rendered by us pursuant to this Agreement, or in connection with any Account you have with us, (c) the relationships that result from this Agreement, or (d) the validity, scope, enforceability, or applicability for this arbitration provision to a Claim shall be resolved by binding arbitration.

You or we may choose either the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") or the National Arbitration Forum ("NAF") to conduct any arbitration proceeding. If for any reason the AAA or the NAF is unwilling or unable to conduct the arbitration proceeding, or if you or we are unable to agree on another arbitrator, we will substitute another national or regional arbitration organization.

For personal accounts, arbitration proceedings will be conducted pursuant to the rules of the NAF, or the Rules for Resolution of Consumer-Related Disputes or the Expedited Procedures for Commercial Arbitration of the AAA, as applicable; for non-personal accounts, arbitration proceedings will be conducted pursuant to the rules of the NAF, or the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the AAA, as applicable. Arbitration proceedings will be conducted in accordance with the applicable rules and procedures of the chosen arbitration organization in effect at the time the Claim is filed. In the event of any inconsistency between this provision and the rules to be used for an arbitration proceeding, such inconsistency shall be resolved in favor of this provision. Rules and forms may be obtained or a Claim may be filed by contacting the AAA at 1-800-778-7879 or by visiting its website at <http://www.adr.org>, or by contacting the NAF at 1-800-474-2371 or by visiting its website at <http://www.arb-forum.com>. This arbitration provision limits your right to litigate claims in court. Please review this provision carefully.

Arbitration proceedings shall occur in a locale mutually agreed to, or if no agreement can be reached regarding locale, arbitration proceedings shall occur within the federal judicial district of your residence at the time the Claim is filed. This arbitration provision is made pursuant to a transaction involving interstate commerce, and shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (the "FAA"), 9 U.S.C. §§ 1-16, notwithstanding any other choice of law provision contained in this Agreement. Judgement upon any arbitration award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. The filing of a demand for arbitration will be deemed the commencement of an action for purposes of any applicable statute of limitations. Any dispute as to whether any statute of limitations, estoppel, waiver, laches, or similar doctrine bars the arbitration of any Claim shall be decided by arbitration in accordance with this arbitration provision. Claims by or on behalf of other persons will not be considered in, or consolidated with, the arbitration proceeding between you and us. It is the intention of the parties that there will be no class action arbitration pursuant to this arbitration provision. Nothing in this arbitration provision shall limit the right of you or us, whether before, during, or after the pendency of any arbitration proceeding, to exercise any self-help remedies, such as set-off or repossession and sale of collateral, or to obtain provisional or ancillary remedies or injunctive or other traditionally equitable relief, such as filing an interpleader action. The taking of any of these actions by either party shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of the right to demand arbitration of any Claim asserted as a counter-claim, cross-claim, third-party claim, or the like in response to any such action.

You and we agree that the arbitrator: (a) shall limit discovery to matters directly relevant to the arbitrated Claim; (b) shall grant only relief that is based upon and is consistent with substantial evidence, the terms of this Agreement, and applicable substantive law; (c) shall not have any authority to require, as part of any relief granted, that you and we continue any relationship we may have under this Agreement or otherwise; and (d) shall provide a brief written explanation of the basis for the award upon the request of either party and shall make specific findings of fact and conclusions of law to support any arbitration award that exceeds $10,000. Unless inconsistent with the applicable law, each party shall bear the expenses of its respective attorneys, experts, and witnesses, regardless of which party prevails in the arbitration.

If any portion of this arbitration provision is deemed invalid or unenforceable, the remaining portions of this arbitration provision will remain valid and enforceable. This arbitration provision shall survive termination of this Agreement and the closing of your Account.

IF A CLAIM IS NOT SUBJECT TO ARBITRATION FOR ANY REASON, THEN THE CLAIM SHALL BE DECIDED IN A COURT OF COMPETENT JURISDICTION WITHOUT A JURY. YOU AND WE IRREVOCABLY WAIVE ALL RIGHTS TO TRIAL BY JURY.
